Job Description:

At Ferring Pharmaceuticals, we help people around the world build families and live better lives. We are entrepreneurial and innovative, with a global team focused on scientific advances in the areas of reproductive and women's health, gastroenterology, and urology. Ferring + You is all about working together and sharing ideas, so that we can bring science to life for patients around the world.

Every person at Ferring works together to change lives and help people build families. Our corporate teams offer empowering, innovative, challenging and rewarding careers – we are motivated to make a difference. To reach our full potential we collaborate, and respect and value diverse contributions so that we can grow as an organization and as professionals. Together we can influence the world around us to make life and work better.

We are looking for a QA Manager to work in the QA department of our Global Trading Entity, Ferring Pharmaceuticals BV (FPBV). The QA department of FPBV ensures compliance with the EU Good Distribution Practices (GDP) guidelines, maintaining our Wholesaler Distribution Authorization (WDA) and our Quality Management System (QMS) updated.

Ferring+You

In this position, you will be responsible for maintaining FPBV Distribution Quality Systems, ensure inspection readiness at all times and provide adequate and timely responses to observations and follow-up on CAPA implementation.

You will assist Health Authority inspections at FPBV and distribution centers and support GXP surveillance and assessment of new regulations where appropriate and required.

We also expect that you act as “Responsible Person Delegate” for FPBV. Furthermore, you will be responsible for performing post-certification disposition of batches to be released, quarantined, or rejected upon instruction from Global QA teams or releasing sites.
